

The Working Draft

Make sure you completely fill out all the information in the sections below. Failure to complete these sections fully and honestly may incur a loss of points. Responding to some questions with “no” or “n/a” or “I don’t know yet” is acceptable; however, leaving any responses blank is not. If you do not understand any questions you are encouraged to contact your instructor.

Checklist

Before submitting, make sure that you can write “YES” for each of the items below.

1/ I understand that if I write “YES” to any of these statements then such a response is completely true. I further understand that if there is evidence that I have not responded accurately then my paper will be returned to me ungraded. In such a case, I will have to correct my paper and resubmit it. In so doing, I will be subject to a “late penalty.”

2/ I have accurately and fully completed the Auto-Peer requirement below.

3/ I have named the file for submission as follows: Working Draft [my name]

For example: Working Draft Philip Michael McCarthy.

4/ The file I am submitting is a Microsoft Word document.

5/ I have read the rubric and all relevant course material, and included all the information required.

6/ I have pressed spellcheck/grammar check and corrected any text as appropriate.

7/ I have carefully read out loud my entire paper and corrected issues where appropriate.

8/ I have carefully checked my paper to ensure there are no examples of any form of plagiarism. I fully understand what these forms of plagiarism are and I realize fully that any examples of plagiarism will have severe consequences (including but not limited to a zero grade, an F for the course, a formal report to administration, and/or having to write a completely new research paper on a different topic). I further confirm that I have had ample opportunity to discuss issues of plagiarism with my instructor and that any and all of my questions have been addressed.

9/ All work submitted in this paper is my own. No other person was involved in any of the actual writing of this paper.

Auto-Peer Analysis and Feedback

Paste the Auto-Peer analysis and feedback here. If there is any feedback that you do not agree with then simply write your reasons for not making those modifications. For example, you may write “I don’t think my writing needs changing here,” “I didn’t understand the issue,” “I don’t agree with the analysis,” “I would like to meet to discuss this issue further.”

Write Your Paper Below

Begin your paper at the start of the next page. Note that APA Level 1 and Level 2 headers have not been provided for you: You are now required to complete these yourself. Complete the paper using appropriate paragraphs. Remember to leave the rubric at the end of the paper.
